

IBM Alumni Australia (Vic)

Welcome to the second edition of the IBM Alumni Australia (Vic) newsletter featuring our new logo designed by member Tony Austin. Our thanks go to those members who submitted alternative logo ideas/designs for consideration.

The transition from IBM Quarter Century Club Victoria to IBM Alumni Australia (Vic) is now complete. We will continue to recognise and honour our QCC Members who are now foundation members of the new organisation.

Our doors are now open for applications from current and former employees of IBM who wish to be part of the IBM Alumni in

IBM Alumni Australia (Vic) - Membership Criteria

Membership of IBM Alumni Australia (Vic) is open to any past or present employee of IBM and its subsidiaries in Australia, New Zealand or other countries.

Go to our website for details of Membership Criteria and Eligibility

This exciting evolution in our Alumni organisation enables current and former employees who want to connect, engage and perhaps reminisce, to maintain regular contact through local events or via our online platform.

The key to ensuring our Alumni becomes a more vibrant organisation is to get the word out !!

Current members are encouraged to forward this newsletter to those friends and former colleagues who might consider applying for membership.

Note that new membership applications must be lodged no later than August 8 to qualify for voting at the AGM on August 18.

New members may also nominate for a committee or leadership position if their application for membership is lodged at least 10 days prior to the AGM.

Call for Nominations

Under the rules of our Association all Committee positions are declared vacant at each AGM.

Members of the Association may nominate for any office-bearer or general committee position.

IBM Alumni Australia (Vic) offers current and new members the opportunity to take on leadership roles as President, Vice-President, Treasurer or Secretary to help set a new direction, and attract others to further diversify and energise our activities.

We welcome nominations from those new members who might consider a Committee member role to build their skills, knowledge and experience for future Board opportunities. Note that Nominees must be financial members of IBM Alumni Australia (Vic). If more than one candidate nominates for a leadership or general Committee position, a vote will be conducted to fill the position.

Voting is restricted to financial members participating in the AGM or their nominated proxy.
